“ The flowing of memories just keep coming to my mind. The one most comes to me when Pat was driving up she got out of her car ran up to me to give me the biggest hug to console me for my mom passing away that night. I told her my mom saw Jesus, we fell to our knees in each other's arms. Pat, you are in Jesus's arms now! I can only imagine the glory of your eternal life in heaven with all your loved ones! Even though our lives gotten separated on earth, the next time we meet will be in eternity. May God bless you with all you so richly deserve. I love you and I will carry you in my heart ❤️ 🕯️ 🙏

“ I am a long time friend of Patricia, I was a Jackson, Glenda Jackson.. even though we haven't seen each other in 8 years. We went to school together, we use to live on Barrow Hill Rd passed the Good Hope Church and caught the bus close to Patricia's house. I moved away and we lost contact. I am so saddened to hear about her passing, I do send my condolences to her family and other friends. Patricia was a close friend and would help anyone in need. I pray for peace for the family. 🥹🙏❤️
