“ Oh how I loved my cousin Pat. Since she was 10 years older, she was always like an older sister. I remember spending nights at Aunt Ella and Pat and Bobby would take me riding on the gravel roads of Jumpers Corner and Bobby would turn the headlights out and scare Pat and I to death. Pat would grab me and squeeze me so tight and so full of love. She was a very special Angel in the mold of her mother and there was so much love to her and Charlene. It is so hard for the family to lose both of them in such a short time frame.
