“ My heart goes out to your family. I am so sorry for your loss. What pain hurts worse than the pain of losing someone that you love? Though the pain you're feeling must seem unbearable, please remember that you are not alone. Psalms 46:1 says, "God is our refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress." Pray to Him for strength. Weep to Him when there are no words. One of the poets of the Bible said at Psalms 56:8, "You keep track of my wandering. Do collect my tears in your skin bottle." You see, God understands your pain and He cares for you very much (1 Peter 5:7). And He will really help you get through this difficult time (Isaiah 41:10).

“ My MawMaw was the best Grandmother a bunch of kids could possibly have. I hold so many precious memories in my heart of her. She always loved us no matter what. She was the heartbeat of our family. I can not wait until i meet her at the gates. I know she is dancing in the sky.

“ Though I lost contact w/Paulette I never forgot her. I saw her twice over our adult lifetime. The first time she was married and w/an infant daughter the 2nd time I was in state to attend my father's funeral.

Paulette Thomas was my childhood friend. Though she had siblings they were much older. Paulette was basically raised as an only child. Oh, but she was kind and unselfish. My earliest memory of her is when I was in 3rd grade. We rode the dreadful yellow school bus that was always freezing. We were friends until after HS graduation when I left the state.

As children we laughed and we played jacks, and kick the can, and the card games Monopoly & Battle. She had lessons on the piano and beautiful recitals. As Paulette learned to play she taught me what she knew. On Friday night we often had overnight sleepovers. We lived far into the country and we were as free as little banshee Indians. We kept the road hot walking from/to our homes. We were preteens when we had our first smoking experience together. She snagged a package of her father's Camel cigarettes. Paulette became deathly ill:) I really liked her home because it was quiet, had the coveted piano and was nicely furnished. She liked my home because our mother's were very similar, both were short, outstanding cooks and pretty mild mannered and I had lots of brother's and sister's and our home was never quiet.

I've not seen my friend since forever yet seeing Paulette's name I easily peeled away the memory layers and there she is just as vivid today in wholesome memories as when we were small children/teens. As with environmental seasons we have seasons of our life. Paulette was a major part of the spring season of my life. These precious memories are a vivid reminder that she still holds a special place inside my heart, a place that belongs solely to my childhood friend, Paulette Thomas. My heart is shocked and so very sad..

Thank you for the beautiful memories. Thank u ms. Peggy. So so much. She filled our home with love and joy. Joy so thick it was in the air I breathed. Moma sang to us all the time. At home, in the car, all the time. My friends always wanted to come to my house because they loved my moma and they knew she loved them because she showed it. She is with daddy now. They are young and rejoycing in heaven. I can't wait for all of us to meet again. The five of us...The Kings....I love u moma...
