“ This kind & Beautiful woman (My Auntie) was most certainly the best of us, My Father, (her brother) was diagnosed w/cancer ,Aunt Susie, as well as Aunt Max ,completely put their lives on hold - While taking turn 2 travel to Oklahoma 2 & 3 months at a time to b his care-givers, (My mother being handicapped could not do so) With the gentleness of Angels, & the love of sisters they did so. Never asking for anything in return, Just the opportunity 2 take care of their little brother, One of their own.-Always w/a smile & acting as if they were the lucky ones. Unfortunately, My father (Dood) lost his battle w/cancer in 2005- but the memories they made together those last couple years were priceless. They have always had a beautiful friendship w/my Mother, spanning over 50 years. These 3 , were sisters 1st - best friends 2nd. Never missing an opportunity 2 take care of her 2. We lost My Mother 2 weeks ago, it devastated us all .Our heart's broken- The day before Mom's funeral, While at her veiwing -We get the call on Aunt Susie- The news was shocking & Overwhelming - Truly one of the saddest days of My life, This woman was God - fearing -loved her kids, loved her Family. She was funny, kind & Gentle , selflessly gave of herself 2 anyone in need. I will forever b grateful 2 both Aunt Susie & Max , for the care of My Father & their unwavering friendship to My Mother. I FOR ONE will treasure my memories of Aunt Susie, and will love & miss her for the rest of My Life. The only comfort I find in all this tragedy is -Mom or Aunt Susie can walk through Heaven's Door, TOGETHER - HAND IN HAND❤️
