“ Grandma Pearl is so precious to me. She taught me how to really get ahold of the Lord thru prayer and praising him. She had given me many of the songs she used to sing and now I sing them the best that I can. My favorite one of hers is There Ain't No Grave going to hold my body down. I don't sing it as good as she did but I feel so close to her when I sing it. She had prayed with me in the altar many many times. She loved everybody and everyone loved her. My heart still aches at the thought of going to Wynne and not being able to see her there but I know that I will see her again when I get to heaven. I'm sure she's singing up there right now..I knew that grave wasn't going to hold me..And she's singing with Paul & Silas...I miss you Grandma and I know everyone else does also..You were the most strongest and faithful woman I've ever known.

“ Dear Family, We are so sorry to hear of Aunt Pearls Death. We will always remember her love she had for anybody and everybody. She is the STRONGS lady I've known in a long time. This lady pulled at our hearts. To each of you kids. She had to be the greatest MOTHER. The grandmother ever. With the love she had for each of you. We feel so honored to call her AUNT PEARL. There was only one of her but she spread her wings so wide. She is with GOD and all her family now and we will see here again. Love to each of you and hugs of comfort too.

“"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His Saints"
She no longer grabs my hand but, her life still grips my heart. Her faith preaches sermons beyond any that I preach from the pulpit! I will miss Sister Pearl. She has taught many how to live, and now we've learned how to die...never fearful.
Oh grave where is your power? Oh death where is your sting?
We shall not say "goodbye" but "See You Soon".
