“ Mother it's taken me a while to be able to choke down each day. I only wish someone had tried to reach me to tell me you had gone to be with Jesus. The best mother a daughter could have and I'll never forget all the things you you sacrificed for us and unconditional love you had within you for me even when I wasn't loveable. Mother as you watch down from Heaven I want you to see the woman that I become because I am going to take all of this pain and use it to RISE and become a better mother and a better person. One who brings joy and love to every situation and become a successful woman who makes a difference in this world. I will forever regret not getting to say goodbye or to have the opportunity to grieve with my family and loved ones. I wish I could have held your hand as you drifted off to Heaven, but I know you are looking down on me now and I hope I give you many things to smile about.

You will always be in my heart. I'll never forget who you have helped me to become

Your daughter
