“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all at this very difficult time. I know that my mother always cherished her friendship with Rachel and today they are together again in Heaven. I pray that although Rachel has left our presence that the knowledge that Rachel is in the Lord's presence will give you all comfort.

“ I loved Rachel! We shared a lot of laughs and tears together. In working alongside her, she taught me many things. But most of all she was my friend. In the years she and I worked together we shared many "secrets" and even "gossiped" every once in a while! She was quite a character. After we both lost our jobs, we still kept in touch because we loved each other. I am praying for all the family because I know your heart is breaking to lose such a fine woman. So is mine. But it was my pleasure to have gotten to know such a great lady.

“ There will come a day when your tears of sorrow will softly flow into tears of remembrance.... and your heart will begin to heal itself... and grieving will be interrupted by episodes of joy.... and you will hear the whisper of hope. There will come a day when you will welcome the tears of remembrance..... as a sunshower of the soul.... a turning of the tide.... a promise of peace. There will come a day when you will.... risk loving.... go on believing..... and treasure the tears of remembering.

May it help to know others care deeply and are remembering you with special thoughts. Thinking of you with sympathy, May your memories bring you comfort. God Bless you all. Love, Danny & Barbara Stafford
