

Rebecca Faye Weaver

September 17, 1942 - July 25, 2013

Rebecca (Becky) Faye Weaver, 70, of Wynne, passed away Thursday, July 25, in Wynne.

She was preceded in death by her father Claude Bridges, Sr.

Becky worked at First National Bank of Wynne for 45 years before retiring and at one time was the Note Department Supervisor; her last position was Account Services Officer. She also served as Assistant Cashier under Bill Boone who was Cashier at that time. She loved people and loved providing services for her customers. Becky was a member of St. Peter's Catholic Church having served as Usher, Manager of the religious gift store, Extraordinary Minister, and a member of the Women's Guild. She also was past Secretary of the Antique Car Club, and a member of the Ladies' Hospital Auxiliary of CrossRidge Community Hospital, American Cancer Society – Wynne Unit, and the Cross County Amateur Radio Club (#KC5YGX).

Survivors include her husband of 50 years, Jimmy Dee Weaver of Wynne; daughter, Rose Marie Weaver of Wynne; mother, Rose Rebecca Bridges of Wynne; and brothers, Burlen Bridges of Camden and John Barton Bridges of Lonoke.

Visitation Sunday, July 28, from 6:30 to 7:30 PM at St. Peter's Catholic Church and services Monday, July 29, at 10:00 AM, all at St. Peter's Catholic Church. Burial in Cogbill Cemetery.

“Jimmie and Rose Marie I am so sorry for your loss. I loved Becky dearly. Seems like I've known her my entire life (from about 5 yrs old, I think) and was so blessed to have also worked with her at First National Bank after I grew up. I will miss her greatly! I know she was an angel on earth and now God has taken her to get her wings. I pray that God helps you find peace and happiness again. Jimmie, I know you were her one and only soul-mate. My prayers and thoughts will be with you. Sincerely, Marice Clayton Brown Boardman.
