

Riley Wayne Clark

August 23, 2000 - June 15, 2020

Riley Wayne Clark ran into eternity, into the arms of his Jesus, at 11:13 pm on Monday, June 15, 2020.

Riley was born in Jonesboro, Arkansas, on August 23, 2000, to Mark and Cissy Riley Clark. Riley was a student in the honors college program at Arkansas State University. He was active in the BCM, member of FBLA, Honors Society and a faithful member of Wynne Baptist Church. Riley was a past member of the Wynne High School Drama Club and loved his drama club family. He loved Jesus, his family, Star Wars and anything Marvel Comics. Riley was compassionate and a wonderful son, brother, grandson, and friend.

He is survived by his parents, Mark and Cissy Clark of the home, brother, Ryan Clark of the home, paternal grandmother, Nellie Clark of Wynne, maternal grandfather, Bob Riley of Jonesboro, cousins, Ethan, Erin, Jessi, Grace, Evan, Logan, and Justin and a lot of other precious family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his paternal grandfather, Bobby Clark, maternal grandmother, Charlene Riley, aunt, Sonya Clark, cousins, Blake Riley and Laikyn Willett.

Memorials may be made to Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, 200

Vesey Street, 28th Floor, New York, NY 10281 or donate online at www.jdrf.org

“ I met Riley just briefly while my wife was in the hospital having heart surgery. Riley became a constant name in my church services and Prayers. The brief time we met and communication with his parents I can say he was one of the bravest young men I have ever met. He will be greatly missed however we know to be absent in the body is to be present with the Lord. Rest Well Riley I know you fought a good fight.
