“Robbie and I played worked at Addison Shoe Compay for my 12 years there we played softball every year for Addison. He and I always played Table Tennis in the break room quite often, he made me be the best i could be at both games. After leaving Addison, wherever i saw him he would always have that big smile on his face and say " hey girl ". He will be dearly missed.

“ I will miss my friend, Robbie. As the football season is close, I will think often of my "football buddy" and the many times we debated the games. I could always count on him to have a different view of the outcome. However, we always ended with a smile and a love you. To the Family, you are in my thoughts, my heart, and my prayers.

“ I'll never forget back in the 90's seeing Robbie sitting at the sound booth at East Baptist enjoying worship. We had several conversations and I loved Robbie's spirit. Always joyful and friendly, ready to help whenever he could.

“ I just saw last week on someone's Facebook post that Robbie was sick. I prayed for him and for you, Lynette. I just went out to check and see how he was doing, and saw where he had passed. I am so very sorry. Enjoyed working with Robbie at Addison. This is hard to believe. God bless and keep you all in his arms. Cathy Hood.

“ I can remember one Halloween Robbie, David Forester, Russ Davis and Gary Orman pulled the pranks of pranks on the youth group at East Baptist Church. After hearing of 4 inmates in jail for murder made a ruthless jail brake at the cross county jail, About 35 teenagers loaded a Church bus supposedly going to vanndale for a harvest party. On our way up the bay road we stopped to help a vehicle with the hood up on the side of the road. Low and behold as soon as we stopped there were the escaped convicts dressed in orange jump suits with party hose on there heads. At the time these guys were so clever they talked the sheriff(Ronnie Huey) into giving them real jail jump suits. So here we go they stepped out with shot guns and pistols. There guns loaded with rice hulls shattered glasses in the bus, the bus driver who was definitely in on the deal to, quickly drove away and a chase was under way. Robbie and his buddies continued firing on the bus shattering more windows. As this thing went on seemed like a life time, the bus arrived back at East Baptist church and the convicts boarded the bus brandishing firearms and knives. Only seconds later removing there face coverings and revealing we had just been pranked. I was a kid on that bus. I can say without doubt the best prank ever. Anytime numerous people pea there pants. You know it was bad.

“ So sorry for your loss! Robbie was a great person. I remember him and that 77 green ford truck. They set the rear wheels up on blocks one time at East Baptist so when he got into it to leave he thought the transmission went out! He and Lynette liked to have fun and laugh! This family is awesome and full of love. Prayers for Lynette, Jason, Ryan, Autumn and all the grandkids! May God Bless and keep you all!
