“ Our hearts are broken to hear about Bob. Such a wonderful man. A good kind hard working man that could build some of the best houses around. Such fond memories of him and Ms Georgette. Prayers for the family.

“ Bob Meeler was one of the finest men we ever knew. We got to know him when he built our home in Harrisburg in 2007. He was a man of character and integrity. Making a special trip to Harrisburg one evening to apologize for workers he had hired out of Tennessee to frame our house who were drinking on the job. He was so apologetic. He immediately got a different crew to finish the framing. Our heartfelt prayers and thoughts go out to his precious wife Georgette and sons and grandchildren. We have the assurance we will see Bob again in Heaven.
