“ I don't recall what year it was I ran into you at the laundromat here in Wynne. But when I saw your headstone today I was thinking about the time I rode with you to Tulsa when you got your divorce paperwork signed then we ate at that Mexican buffet

“ First I have to say that my daddy passed away on May 3, 2016. He was an incredible man with a heart that was bigger than any other human I have ever known. I miss him daily and my heart still is broken even though it has been over 2 years since he left this earth. I am grateful that I got to spend the night with him at the hospital and see him just hours before he passed. We had a great relationship and we were very close.

I watched as my dad's heart got broken as his only blood son shut him out and wanted nothing to do with him as his drugs and drinking were always more important. Michelle, you didn't have anything to do with my dad for several years; so lets get the record straight. Sandy and Chris- it broke my heart that neither of you could honor my dad at his funeral and be sober. It's taken a long time for me to be able to write this but I wanted so bad to say something at his funeral as it was beyond disrespect. He deserved better than what you did and one day you will have to live with that.

“ Dawn Michelle Calvert Joseph was not mentioned as his step daughter in his obituary. "Missie" as Rodger nicknamed her was a big part of Rodger's life. He always told her he loved her "all in the world" and she told him the same. Missie, Christopher, and I will always remember him as a loving Dad. And will miss him so much.

“Daddy Rodger was a very loving stepdad to me as a little girl. He told me that he took me everywhere with him. I remember a lot of fun times that he reminded me of whenever we talked. We recently reconnected with one another a few months back. The last thing that we told one another was I love you and all of the love in the world. He told me that I would always be his baby girl. I am certain that the good Lord welcomed him with open arms. He is now reunited with Mamaw and Papaw Spencer and Jerry. I am remaining steadfast in prayer for all of the Spencer family. I am truly blessed to have known him and for God to have placed him in my life. I am forever thankful that we found one another again. I am very sad, and until we meet again, I will forever miss you. I love you, Daddy Rodger. One last thing, please give my other daddy a big hug for me. <3 <3
