

Ronald Eugene Tacker

May 10, 1944 - May 5, 2020

Mr. Ronald Tacker, 75, of Wynne, died on Tuesday, May 5, 2020 at Flo and Phil Hospice in Jonesboro, Arkansas.

Ronald was born on May 10, 1944 in Memphis, Tennessee to the late Allen Tacker and Mildred Cobb Chambers. Ronald was raised by John and Viola Cobb, his grandparents, and his mother Mildred Cobb Chambers and Roy Chambers. Ronald was a professional painter and loved to fish. He was of the Baptist faith and attended the First Assembly of God of Wynne.

He is survived by his wife, Carol Tacker of Wynne, children, Carrie Deeds of Jonesboro, Ronnie Tacker of Jonesboro, Karen Draper of Wynne, Lisa Tacker of Wynne, Shane Tacker of Olive Branch, MS and Joshua Tacker of Wynne. He is also survived by his twin brother, Donald Tacker and wife Betty of Louisiana, eight grandchildren, two great grandchildren, and his dog, Peddy who never left his side for six years and a host of nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his great grandchild, Carol Sue Ann Mosley, brother, Robert "Bob" Tacker, and parents, John and Viola Cobb and Allen Tacker, and Roy and Mildred Cobb Chambers.

A graveside burial will be held at a later time at McElroy Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

TG

“ Prayers to the family. I remember many times he helped me to move. I remember his mom and step dad, Roy. They were great friends with my mom and step dad, Fain and Alma Boston.

Tommy Graff - May 27, 2020 at 07:49 AM