“ It seems like only yesterday that we were holding your hand at your bed side. We knew you were slipping away from us and knew it was time to let go of your hand. We love you and know that you are in our future waiting on us to come home, just as you did so many times in our earthly home. Love your favorite peach picker

“ Miss Jean,
We hate to hear about the passing of Mr. Roy, but we know that he is a much better place. We all know that he had made Jesus his Lord and Savior. It was very important part of his life.
Please be sure and remember the good times, and we will keep you and your family in our prayers.

“ Ms. Jean, look to the Lord for he is holding your strength and your Faith that lay within his grace and mercy. Mr Roy was a man whom I considered one of my Spiritual fathers and he will forever be missed by me. His funeral has already been Preached by the life he led. May God bless you and the family during this time and I count it a high honor to sing in his service on thursday.
