“ Dear Jenny and Kern; Words cannot begin to express our sympathy and sorrow at your loss. I need not tell you what your friendship meant to me nearly 11 years ago. We now wish to do the same for both of you, as well as Kelly. It is impossible to watch a child grow up almost from birth to his untimely passing away without having your soul ripped out, and this is the way we feel. We pray the Lord will give all of you some measure of comfort. Please understand we belived Scott was a wonderful young man, and equal to the upbringing you both gave him. There is little more I can say, except may God Bless and keep you all in His Infinite Grace and Mercy.
