

Selita Joyce Slabaugh

September 20, 1959 - January 23, 2017

Mrs. Selita Joyce Slabaugh of Marion, Arkansas, died Monday, January 23, 2017 in Memphis, Tennessee at the Methodist Hospital; she was 57.

Selita was born in Memphis, Tennessee to Ben Charles turner and Betty Jean Cornelous Turner. She went to Arkansas State and was a teacher. She loved to read and loved her cats. In 1989, she married Chuck Fitzgerald Slabaugh. She was a member of Colonial Baptist Church in Marion, Arkansas.

Survivors are her loving husband, Chuck Fitzgerald Slabaugh of Marion, Arkansas. She is preceded in death by her brother, Greg Turner and parents, Ben and Betty Turner.

Visitation will be Thursday, January 26, 2017 from 10 AM until 10:30 AM.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Colonial Baptist Church, 3961 Interstate 55 Access Rd, Marion, AR 72364.

Previous Events

Visitation

JAN 26. 10:00 AM - 10:30 AM (CT)

Colonial Baptist Church
3961 Interstate 55 Access Rd
Marion, AR 72364, AR

Funeral service

JAN 26. 10:30 AM (CT)

Colonial Baptist Church
3961 Interstate 55 Access Rd
Marion, AR 72364, AR

Interment

JAN 26 (CT)

Cogbill Cemetery
Wynne, AR

Tribute Wall

KS

“ Selita, I thought of you today and tried to find you. I ended up here. My sweet, sweet childhood friend. I will never forget you.

Kelley Sellers - August 21, 2021 at 03:58 PM

CI

“ Selita was my first grade teacher at Wedlock Elementary in Edmondson, Arkansas. I'm 38 years old now and have a child of my own, but the impression she left on mine and my family's life is a lasting one. Selita brought me, a little African American girl, into her home. I would spend nights in her home with her and her husband, Chuck. She didn't have kids of her own but she was so good with children. She would allow me and my baby sister to help her set up her classrooms in the fall. She would often pray with & for my mom & family. She was an extension of God's love, personified and was the kindest, most gentle woman I've ever had the privilege of knowing. I just learned of her passing yesterday & am so sorry I couldn't say goodbye properly but I know I'll see her again one day. If anybody made it to heaven, I know she did. Rest in love and sweet peace, Selita & thank you for everything you did for me and my family. I never forgot you. Until we meet again, I love you forever.

-Cicely

Cicely - April 25, 2021 at 01:09 AM

LI

“ Seleta was a wonderful woman who loved her husband and the kids she taught in kindergarten. She was my friend a d sister In Christ. Heaven has a other angel now. I miss her.

Linda - February 19, 2017 at 07:35 AM

I just seen Selita had passed.I will never forget the moment I saw Jesus in her eyes .She was my sons kindergarten teacher & because of her loving Jesus ❤️ I am saved today .Thank you Selita for giving to the Lord I am a life that was changed & saved.I live you & I will see you again !

Kimberly Graham - February 08, 2023 at 12:20 AM