

Shannon Jase Ivy

October 3, 1970 - August 27, 2023

Ms. Shannon Jase Ivy, 52, of Bono, passed away on Sunday, August 27, 2023, after a long illness.

Shannon was born in Wynne, Arkansas, on October 3, 1970, to Gary Nichols and the late Linda Manley Nichols. She was a remarkable mother and grandmother and loved spending time with her grandchildren. Shannon enjoyed fishing.

She is survived by her father, Gary Nichols of Wynne, daughter, Linda Nichols of Bono, sisters, Deshon Scott of Jonesboro, LaChriss Powell of Fair Oaks, Kaycee Hall of Bono, and grandchildren, Breelyn, Lynlee and Journee.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Linda Manley Nichols and an infant son, Steven Paul Richardson, Jr.

A memorial service for Ms. Ivy will be held a later time.

Tribute Wall

DE

“ Shannon’s middle name was Jase how did I not know that wow Shannon was a great friend the best one ever she never came across a problem we couldn’t solve she was there for me when I needed her and I hope I was there for her we loved a lot of the same things and we always loved to fish the last trips we’re a little difficult sometimes but nothing we couldn’t do together and just seeing her face lite up and always even as sick as she was was ready to go I will cherish the opportunity of having the preivldge to be the best of friends and being able to take her fishing and enjoy her last days here w her wished we’d fished every day I love her and miss her she was my sister and best friend

---

desha - November 02, 2023 at 01:11 AM