

Spencer Lewis Jones

December 22, 1998 - June 14, 2026

Spencer “Mimi” Lewis Jones, age 27, of Palestine, died Sunday, June 14, 2026, in Monroe County, Arkansas. His death was sudden and unexpected.

Spencer was born December 22, 1998, and graduated from Palestine High School in 2017. He lived in St. Francis County all of his life. Spencer was a jack of all trades working as a heavy equipment operator, an ag-pilot, and a welder among many other hobbies and talents. Spencer loved hunting, spending time with friends and family, and anything outdoors. To know him was to love him, he was a friend to all and brother to many. He was often the guy his friends turned to in their time of need, knowing he would give them the shirt off his back or just lend a listening ear. A piece will always be missing from his family and friends’ life, but he left the best piece of him in his son, Carson.

Spencer married the love of his life Bailey Alldredge Jones in 2021, and she survives him along with one son, Carson Milton Jones. Spencer is also survived by his paternal grandparents, Linda and Clarence Jones, his father Jason Jones, and sisters, Helen-Claire and Ellen Jones. He is preceded in death by his mother, Nicole Overton.

Services will be held at Stevens Funeral Home Chapel, 10:30 A.M., Thursday, with burial in Bell Cemetery. Visitation will be Wednesday, 6:00 till 8:00 P.M, at Stevens Funeral Home, with Stevens Funeral Home in charge of arrangements. You may log on to stevensfuneralhome.net for the online registry.
