“ *Your momma and Larry love and miss you.
I'm thankful you are at rest in peace and Gods comfort.
You made our world shine with so much joy
and laughter.
I can't wait to see and hold you again soon.
Love now and always,
Mom and Larry*

“ *My precious baby girl~
I love and miss you SO much.
You are my shining star.
It's been almost 5 yrs since you left this world.
Life is not the same without you. My heart aches and tears flow thinking of my baby God shared with us.
I'm thankful for every single moment during the 27 yrs you were with us.
Joshua misses you a lot.
I appreciate your "visits" and look forward to the next one.
Your momma prays for peace and strength.
Please forgive my shortcomings, I know we had bumps along the way but; each time, our love grew stronger.
I hold you in my heart now and always.
I see you and your beautiful smile with those cute little dimples.
I look forward to seeing you again soon.
I love you Staci baby,
Mom*

“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. But Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. Then we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Rosemarie

“ *Dearest Tami, Larry and Josh,
You have our deepest sympathy on the tragic and heartbreaking loss of Staci. She was such a wonderful, beautiful, intelligent young; the best the world has to offer.*

You did such a great job of creating a wholesome family environment; you gave Staci good roots and you gave her her wings.

We will all meet up in heaven.

Love and God Bless,

“ My Sweet Staci~ Where do I begin? Life is not the same without you, my baby girl. You brought life to us the moment we found out to expect your arrival May 26, 1983. God blessed us more than we could have imagined. At the age of 4, you made it perfectly clear that; You "picked us to be your parents" before we were even aware to expect you. You were almost 5 when your brother was born. I continue to be most honored and privileged as Mother to you and Joshua. I pray God's mending love in my heart. Knowing you are only at rest for now and we will all be together again with Our Lord. Thank you Jesus for your all and everything.
"Our Hearts Beat as One" through Staci, Joshua and me. I love, cherish, admire and MISS my baby girl always and forever, Mom

“ A poem from Aaron: When you are young you think of friends as nice people. When one of you leaves, it's not a big deal. As you mature, you realize that the friends are something more. They are like burrs because the the closer and deeper they are to you, the more it hurts when they are taken out. Family members are like barbs because they puncture through and attach to the inside, and when they are taken out, they leave holes. Only two things can fill in those holes, time and love.

“ In the spring of 31 C.E., Jesus Christ boldly promised: “Just as the Father raises the dead up and makes them alive, so the Son also makes those alive whom he wants to. Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Yes, Jesus Christ promised that millions now dead will live again on this earth and have the prospect of remaining on it forever under peaceful, paradisaic conditions. (Luke 23:43; John 3:16; 17:3; compare Psalm 37:29 and Matthew 5:5.) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing to fulfill it. “ (Isaiah 25:8-9) 8 He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken [it]. 9 And in that day one will certainly say: “Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.”
