“ Dear Rosie, Mom (Elsa) just called to tell me about Steven (Emma called her this morning). We may not see each other, but we are a close family, and my heart aches for you. I wish I were there to hug, comfort, and cry with you. We have had so many trials in our family, ... so many losses! It isn't fair. I wish I would have known sooner, I would have flown there to help. If you'd like to talk, or if there is anything you need, call mom. We are here for you. I love you so much, ... your sister, Angela

“ Dear Ricky, Rose, Lori, Nathan and Natalie, I was deeply saddened to hear about the death of Steven. I know how difficult this must be for you. You are in my thoughts and prayers. I remember first meeting cousin Steven in Germany in that very small apartment of yours, when Steven was an infant, and I recently seen him at our grandmother's funeral, he had grown to be man, somehow I had missed the years between. I know how much you will miss Steven. I encourage you to draw on your strength and the strength of your family. Please call me if I can be of any help. It would be nice to hear your voices. May God bless you and your family during this time and always, Gary Lee Richardson Jr.

“ Dear Rick & Rose, My heart goes out to you in the loss of your precious son. He was always so courteous, respectful, a pleasure to be around, and always had a smile on his face. He will be missed, but will remain in our hearts forever. Please know that you are in my many prayers for God to comfort your hearts during this time and always. Love & Blessings to you, Rhonda Grantham
