“ *Thurel and Becky and Family,
Just wanted to send my condolences to each of you and the family on the loss of Tony. I can't begin to know the sadness yall are feeling at this time. I do know how proud you were of the man Tony became and I personally send my thanks for his 22 years of service to our country. I simply ask that you take the time to let God's Love be both your source of Peace and Strenght in this time of grief. Tony is with our Lord and Saviour and we have his word that the next time you see Tony it will be Forever. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
May God Bless, All My Love, George*
