Bill was born on June 22, 1937 in Des Arc, Arkansas to Azie Norman and Jewell Rutledge Norman. Bill attended the University of Maryland. He enlisted in the United States Army in June of 1956. During his service, he attended aviation school, was an airplane and helicopter inspector and served in Vietnam. He was a very active member of the VFW. He was an amazing father and always made sure his family's care came first. He loved the outdoors and would rather be outside than inside.
