“ I lived across the street from Sneed growing up. He was 10 yrs older than me and I just adored him. I called him my boyfriend. I followed him around like a puppy. He could have just brushed me off but he was so sweet to me you just couldn't believe it. It's no wonder he turned into such a great man, his mother was the finest example of a soft spoken Southern lady and his daddy with that impish grin and adorable giggle were the best parents any kid could ever have.

Our big night out was when Bonanza was on. I believe they had the first color tv in Marked Tree and we were always invited to come over and watch. My heart goes out to his family because I am sure he was the best husband and father in the world. I only knew him when I was a child but his kindness to me made a lifelong impression.

“ Carol, Brent, and Brian, Dr. Shaw was one of Wynne's best. He loved competition and i have so many vivid images of he and dad playing golf in the Forrest City 4-Ball. As 'the caddie', they let me ride on the cart with them and it was awesome. Later, i used to love running into him at Razorback games. He loved you guys so very much. My thoughts and prayers are with you, god bless!
